ARSENAL OF DEMOCRACY: WORLD WAR II VICTORY CAPITOL FLYOVER

in honor of the 70th Anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE Day)
May 8, 2015 | Washington, D.C.

To honor the heroes who fought in the War and those on the home front who produced the tanks, ships, and aircraft that enabled the United States and its Allies to achieve victory, one of the most diverse arrays of World War II aircraft ever assembled will fly above the skies of Washington, D.C. on Friday, May 8, 2015, the 70th anniversary of Victory in Europe (VE) Day.

The Arsenal of Democracy World War II Victory Capitol Flyover will feature historically sequenced warbird formations traveling across our nation's capital—from the Lincoln Memorial to the Capitol. The formations will represent the major battles of World War II, ending with a final missing man formation to "Taps."

“They have given their sons to the military services. They have stoked the furnaces and hurried the factory wheels.

They have made the planes and welded the tanks, riveted the ships and rolled the shells.”
