

HIGHLY SKILLED PROFESSIONAL ENSURING YOUR SAFETY

AMERICA'S AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLERS

The National Air Traffic Controllers Association proudly salutes the winners of the sixth annual Archie League Medal of Safety Awards. Named after America's first air traffic controller, these awards honor instances of exceptional skill, professionalism and dedication by our nation's air traffic controllers. From alerting aircraft to dangerous situations in the sky to expertly guiding private aircraft pilots in distress to safe landings, each of these winners has contributed to ensuring the safety of others.

Alaskan Region

John Michael Evans (Fairbanks Flight Service Station)
Richard Todd Lamb (Anchorage Center)

Central Region

Jessica Hermsdorfer (Kansas City)

Eastern Region

Louis Charles Ridley (Potomac Terminal Radar Approach Control)

Great Lakes Region

Kristin Danninger (Madison, Wisc.)

New England Region

Kevin Plante (Portland, Maine)
Christopher Presley (Portland, Maine)

Northwest Mountain Region

Troy Decker (Salt Lake Center)

Southern Region

Jessica Anaya (Miami Center)
Dan Favio (Fort Myers, Fla.)
Lisa Grimm (Miami Center)
Nate Henkels (Miami Center)
Carey Meadows (Fort Myers, Fla.)
Brian Norton (Fort Myers, Fla.)

Southwest Region

Natasha Hodge (Dallas/Fort Worth TRACON)
Douglas Wynkoop (Dallas/Fort Worth TRACON)

Western Pacific Region

Ron Chappell (Southern California TRACON)

To learn more about these safety professionals, go to www.natca.org.

NATIONAL AIR TRAFFIC CONTROLLERS ASSOCIATION, AFL-CIO

www.natca.org

