

A Course Correction by Cleveland Controllers

Quick-thinking prevents possible disaster

The close proximity of satellite airports to major airports can be a challenge for air traffic control in metropolitan areas. Cleveland Tower controllers Dan Mitchell, Robert Haibach, Dan Leipold, and Andrew Gupko's situational awareness and quick action recently diverted two aircraft from a potential collision course. ## NATCA Legislative

Poster campaign continues

How are we advancing our profession? By working together and getting involved. Here is the third poster of the NATCA Legislative Committee's new campaign. Look for it today in your facility.

The poster campaign will run through NATCA in Washington 2017, where the 5th and final poster will be handed out. We encourage your engagement with this initiative as we all advance NATCA's legislative efforts in support of our careers and the National Airspace System. Have questions? Want to get involved? Your FacRep, State Legislative Coordinators, and Facility Legislative Reps are great resources to help you learn more.

Confidential Information Share Program (CISP)

New briefing sheet

Learn about the importance of reporting safety incidents through the Air Traffic Safety Action Program (ATSAP) and CISP by reading firsthand accounts of dangerous turbulence in the air. Then, become part of the discussion at your facility about how to collect and disseminate Pilot Reports (PIREPS).

PHL Convention efforts: Rebuilding Together Philadelphia

The Philadelphia 17th Biennial Convention Committee and the NATCA Charitable Foundation are teaming up with Rebuilding Together Philadelphia to rebuild and repair a home that provides low-income housing. They hope to raise $10,000 to sponsor a home. The committee plans to roll up their sleeves, grab hammers, and get to work on Oct. 14. There will be a 5k Run/2 mile walk on May 20 that the Philadelphia local will be participating in to help raise awareness for the fundraiser. All donations made will benefit Rebuilding Together Philadelphia. To donate, click here. To learn more, click here.
