U.S. House of Representatives Passes FY 2018 Budget Resolution

On Thursday, the U.S. House of Representatives passed its fiscal year (FY) 2018 budget resolution (H. Con. Res. 71) by a vote of 219 to 206. Just as it did when it passed out of committee on July 19, the Republican budget resolution - which provides a blueprint for how Congress may fund the government for FY 2018 - contains recommended reforms to federal employee retirement benefits. Convention 2018: Robert's Rules

1. Only one matter may be considered at a time.
2. It is the right of the majority to rule.
3. It is the right of the minority to be heard.

Brush up on some of the underlying principles behind the procedures for deliberation and debate, called Robert's Rules of Order, to get ready for Convention.

The 17th Biennial Convention will take place in Philadelphia, April 17-20, 2018. Check out the new NATCA Convention page and register today!

Members should submit proposed resolutions or amendments by close of business (5 p.m. EST) on Dec. 18, 2017, to the NATCA Executive Vice President at tgilbert@natcadc.org. Proposals will then be mailed to all members at least 60 days prior the convention. The National Convention body will then vote on all proposals that are in order and properly before the body.

If you have any questions please contact a Constitution Committee member.

Article XIV Section 1 of the NATCA Constitution covers this subject.
