LeBovidge Appointed to Advanced Aviation Advisory Committee

NATCA Executive Vice President Andrew LeBovidge was recently appointed to the Advanced Aviation Advisory Committee (AAAC).

The AAAC — formerly known as the Drone Advisory Committee (DAC) — is a broad-based federal advisory committee that provides independent advice and recommendations to the FAA on key unmanned aircraft system

(UAS) and advanced air mobility (AAM) integration issues, interests and policies.

The AAAC's work relates to the efficiency and safety of integrating advanced aviation technologies into the National Airspace System. AAAC members represent various stakeholder groups with an AAM background. The next AAAC Meeting is scheduled for Oct. 20, 2022 in Arlington, Va. Read more about the AAAC here.

NATCA Staff Spotlight: Public Affairs Administrator Jessica Reed

We have an amazing National Office staff that our membership can be very proud of. They work hard every day and are committed to providing our members with the very best service and representation in organized labor. Today, we feature one of our newest employees: NATCA's Public Affairs Administrator Jessica Reed, who joined NATCA's staff in August 2022.

About her experience at the National Office so far, Jessica said, "I've only been here for a few months, but I feel very lucky that I had the opportunity to attend Communicating For Safety (CFS) in September. I really enjoyed meeting many of our members in person!"
