

NEB Holds Meeting in Las Vegas

NATCA's National Executive Board (NEB) held a meeting in Las Vegas in conjunction with the NATCA Activism and Training Expo (ATX). On Wednesday and Thursday, the NEB met to discuss issues of importance to our Union.

Culinary Union Activists Talk Labor Rights and Advocacy at ATX

At Wednesday's NATCA Activism and Training Expo (ATX) general session, Henry Joyner and Stella Kalaoram from the Culinary Workers Union Local 226 spoke on a panel moderated by NATCA staff member Eugene Freedman. Joyner is part of the organizing committee at Red Rock Resort Las Vegas, and Kalaoram is a shop steward and organizer at the Cosmopolitan.

PHOTO (left to right): NATCA Special Counsel to the President Eugene Freedman and Culinary Workers Union Local 226 members Stella Kalaoram and Henry Joyner

The Culinary Union is a Nevada affiliate of UNITE HERE and represents 60,000 workers in Las Vegas and Reno, including at most of the casino resorts on the Las Vegas Strip and in downtown Las Vegas.

IAFF 9th District Vice President Michael Frainier Speaks to ATX Attendees

Michael H. Frainier, IAFF 9th District Vice President took the stage on Thursday at the NATCA Activism and Training Expo (ATX) in Las Vegas during the General Session. Frainier discussed his work representing the fire fighting professionals in his district, which includes Colorado, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Wyoming.

PHOTO: IAFF 9th District Vice President Michael Frainier

The International Association of Fire Fighters was established in 1918 and represents professional firefighters and paramedics across the United States and Canada. The IAFF has more than 333,000 members in over 3,500 local affiliates.

NATCA Regions Represented in Daily Breakouts

NATCA members at the NATCA Activism and Training Expo (ATX) began and ended each day in breakout rooms with sisters and brothers from their respective regions. ATX highlights the abundant opportunities to get involved in the many ongoing projects and programs that affect our members and the National Airspace System.

NATCA | 1325 Massachusetts Ave NW, Washington, DC 20005

Unsubscribe tmetzger@natca.org

Update Profile | Constant Contact Data Notice

Sent by natcanationaloffice@natca.net