

NATCA Member Shares Her Story at NASA Conference on Future of Aviation

Trisha Pesiri-Dybvik (Santa Barbara ATCT, SBA; Western Service Area-S Collaboration Facilitator) was a featured speaker at the second annual imaginAviation event presented by the NASA Transformative Aeronautics Concepts Program (TACP), held Feb. 28 through March 2. The virtual event showcased the latest innovations in NASA Aeronautics and invited attendees to be immersed in the future of aviation. Participants experienced collaboration between industry, government agencies, and NASA Aeronautic programs. The presentation also focused on what it meant to be a part of NASA's aviation community and witness the future transformation of aviation.

Indianapolis NATCA Members “Strike Out Homelessness” With AFL-CIO

NATCA members from Indianapolis Center (ZID) and Indianapolis ATCT (IND) participated in the 3rd annual “Strike Out Homelessness” event hosted by the Central Indiana AFL-CIO.

“We had a great turnout for a great cause, with thousands of dollars raised for the area homeless,” ZID retired member Bob Zabel said. “Team NATCA had won the first two events in previous years and finished second this year to local firefighters.”
