

19th Biennial Convention: Video from AFL-CIO President Liz Shuler

Liz Shuler is president of the AFL-CIO, which includes 60 unions and 12.5 million members, and the first woman leader of the labor federation. A visionary leader and longtime trade unionist, Shuler believes the labor movement is the single most powerful vehicle for progress and that unions are a central force in leading lasting societal transformations. She is committed to busting myths about labor, leveraging the labor movement's diversity for innovative approaches to social justice and making the benefits of a union voice on the job available to working people everywhere. Shuler believes unions are the single greatest force for economic fairness and equality, and a collective bargaining agreement is the best tool for achieving justice for all working people.

Shuler provided a video address for our Convention.

19th Biennial Convention: Video from U.S. Rep. Hakeem Jeffries

Representative Hakeem Jeffries, from New York's 8th Congressional District in Brooklyn, is the House Minority Leader, having been unanimously elected to that position by his colleagues in November 2022. In that capacity, he is the highest-ranking Democrat in the U.S. House of Representatives.

Congressman Jeffries has been instrumental in Democratic efforts in the House of Representatives to put people over politics by creating better-paying jobs and supporting infrastructure investment. Over the past two years Leader Jeffries has been instrumental in helping to get passed the American Rescue Plan to secure the economy during COVID, the Infrastructure Investment and Jobs Act, which provides $5 billion for FAA facilities and $25 billion for airport infrastructure, the CHIPS and Science Act to encourage domestic technology manufacturing.
