Every year, NATCA offers a scholarship program for spouses, children, stepchildren, and legally adopted children of active, retired, and deceased members in good standing for at least two consecutive years. This scholarship is for full-time attendance at accredited colleges and universities within the United States and its territories for an undergraduate degree program.

This year, candidates were asked to examine why labor unions are experiencing a resurgence and what implications this has for the future.

Kyle Buchan, child of retired member Deborah Buchan (Grand Rapids ATCT, GRR) is among this year's 20 scholarship winners. Read the essay that Kyle submitted here.

“The resurgence of labor unions is a hopeful sign that workers are not content to accept the status quo and are willing to fight for a better future.”
