NATCA Celebrates Martin Luther King Jr. Day

Today we commemorate the enduring legacy of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., a visionary leader and tireless advocate for social justice, equality, and the power of collective action. His role as a central figure in the American civil rights movement from the 1950s until his untimely death in 1968 remains a beacon of inspiration and courage.

Dr. King understood how the success of the civil rights and labor movements were intertwined. His support for the Memphis sanitation workers' strike in his final days is a testament to his commitment to the labor cause. Learn more about Dr. King's involvement with AFSCME and his broader labor advocacy here.

His legacy inspires us to keep striving for a fairer, more just society.

“LIFE'S MOST PERSISTENT
AND URGENT
QUESTION IS,
WHAT ARE YOU DOING
FOR OTHERS?”

— DR. MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR.

HONORING
THE LEGACY OF
MARTIN LUTHER KING
MLK
DAY

As proud NATCA members, we recognize the critical role unions play in ensuring fair compensation, benefits, and working conditions. We take pride in our members who tirelessly work to support our Union, enhance our professions, and safeguard the National Airspace System.

In honoring Dr. King's memory, let us embrace his teachings on the power of unity and collective effort. His profound words remind us of our interconnectedness: “Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?’”

As we reflect on Dr. King's life and message, let's commit to uplifting each other, advocating for our community, and contributing positively to the world.

NLC Members Attend Labor Roundtable with Rep. Sharice Davids

NLC Kansas State Coordinator Mentee James Heath (Kansas City Center, ZKC) and NLC Central Region Alternate Jami Davis (Kansas City Center, ZKC) recently attended a labor roundtable with U.S. Representative Sharice Davids (Kan.-3).

Before the roundtable began, Rep. Davids and Jami Davis had a chance to talk over coffee. Davids and Davis have built a great relationship over the years after meeting during the 2018-2019 government shutdown. Davis expressed her appreciation for the Congresswoman's support and emphasized the importance of having the CRWG numbers included in the final FAA
