

Pueblo ATCT Members Represent NATCA at Women in Aviation International Conference

NATCA members Vanessa Daniels (Pueblo ATCT, PUB) and Laura Hinojos (PUB) represented our Union at this year's Women in Aviation International (WAI) Conference in Denver, Colo. from March 27-29.

Daniels and Hinojos had the opportunity to connect with student-pilots and prospective controllers, as well as seasoned aviation professionals, offering them insight into their lives as air traffic controllers. They also provided educational resources, including our Union's popular pilot-controller communications cards, which can be found on our website.

Pueblo ATCT Members Represent NATCA at Women in Aviation International Denver | March 27-29, 2025

Every year, the WAI Conference brings together thousands of attendees and exhibitors from across the aviation industry, from pilots and flight attendants to engineers and air traffic controllers, to support and advance women in the industry. NATCA was proud to be a bronze sponsor for this year's event! You can learn more WAI on their website, www.wai.org.
