

NATCA Honors Our Fallen Heroes This Memorial Day

This Memorial Day, NATCA remembers and honors all those who served and died for the freedoms we hold dear. Our hearts go out to those that have lost a family member or friend who died while serving in the United States armed forces.

This process is a powerful example of union democracy in action. Each delegate must speak not just for themselves, but for the collective voice of their facility, emphasizing that each member is an individual whose position is counted, acknowledged, and respected.

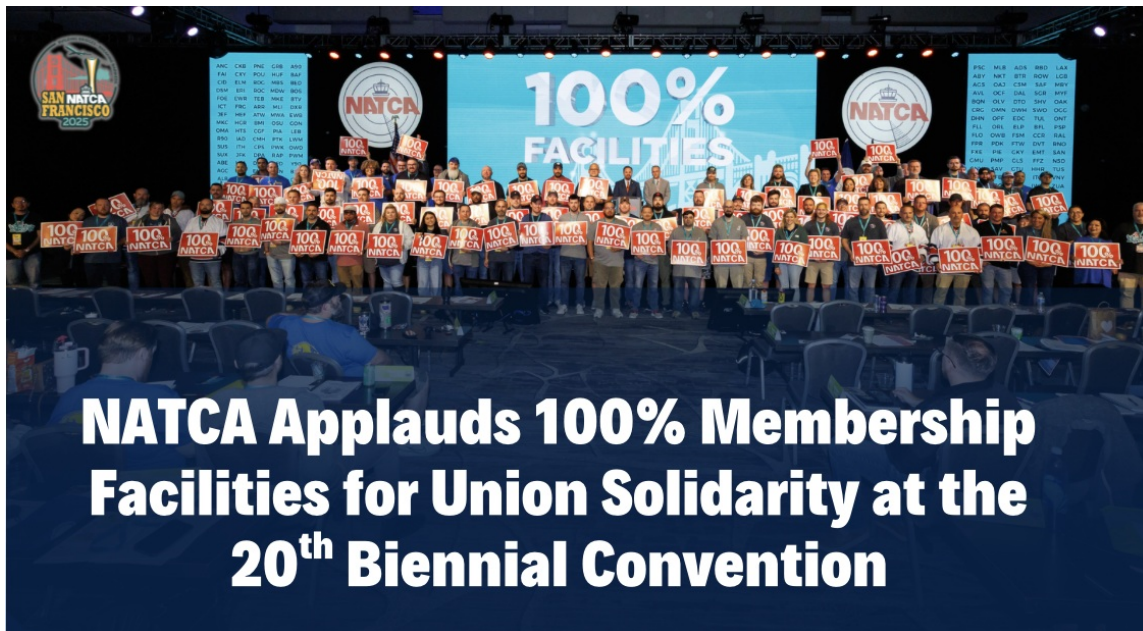

This vote reflected the seriousness of the business of convention and the commitment of NATCA members to engage fully in the decisions that shape their Union. The last time NATCA held a roll call vote was at the 15th Biennial Convention in 2014 in Minneapolis. Moments like these strengthen the integrity of the Union and reinforce that every voice matters.
